Indianapolis NAACP Statement on IU Health Investigation Into the Treatment of Dr. Susan Moore

INDIANAPOLIS — May 17, 2021 — Chrystal Ratcliffe, President of the Greater Indianapolis Branch of the NAACP, issued the following statement today in response to the external investigation into the treatment of Dr. Susan Moore, a patient who alleged racial bias in the care she received at IU North Hospital in Carmel.

“We are pleased to see IU Health has completed such a thorough investigation into the care of Dr. Susan Moore and is now committed to an action plan for improvement. We look forward to seeing their progress in becoming a more inclusive, anti-racist organization and plan to hold them accountable to their word.”
